PORTRAITS.

CRAYONS DE COULEUR
A SPECIALTY.

VIBROTYPE.

Patent granted March 16th, 1880.

MY NEW PROCESS of photographing through heated (vibrating) air produces a negative, where freckled faces, characteristic heads with marked features, especially elderly people, appear remarkably soft and artistic. It does not resemble a map of their faces, and the retouching, so injurious to the portrait, is reduced to a minimum.

WEDDING ETIQUETTE,

RECOGNIZED AUTHORITY AND COMPREHENSIVE.

(From the N. Y. Tribune.)

Messrs. Dempsey & Carroll, the well-known Art Stationers of Union Square, have published a pretty volume entitled "The Art of Correspondence," containing a great variety of letters on all manner of social, business and political topics, intended to illustrate the various forms and usages best approved in such matters. A good many of the letters are from historical personages, and have a positive value. To this is appended a good deal of matter appropriate to their business and of interest to their patrons, concerning the customs about stationery, cards, monograms, invitations, &c. Great varieties of crests, address dies, &c., are given, and whoever wants to select choice stationery, have neat visiting cards, or familiarize himself with the various styles, will find the book a convenience.

It is edited by Mr. George D. Carroll, a member of the firm, and is exquisitely printed.

A NEW PORTFOLIO

Of Proof Copies of the Choicest Recent Pictures

FROM

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY & ST. NICHOLAS.

To the readers of SCRIBNER and ST. NICHOLAS, who have taken an interest in the beautiful illustrations which have recently appeared in these magazines, there can be no more satisfactory Holiday gift than the "Portfolio of Proofs," containing fifty of the most interesting and valuable of recently published, or yet to be published, pictures from these two periodicals, printed on separate sheets of heavy paper (size 10½ x 13), laid loosely in a handsome portfolio, and ready for framing. Three months have been spent in the preparation of

The Limited Edition of Fifteen Hundred Copies.

Among the Pictures in this collection are some of the choicest of the Millet pictures,—the beautifully engraved "Sower," portraits of Millet and Mme. Millet (the latter richly printed in color), "The Shepherdess," and several others; portraits of Edgar Allan Poe, Savonarola, Duveneck, Gladstone, Peter the Great, John G. Whittier, Whistler's Mother, Walt Whitman, Seymour Haden, Joseph Jefferson as Bob Acres, Mme. Ristori, and others; "The Princes in the Tower," by Millais, from ST. NICHOLAS; "A Russian Nun;" Vedder's "The Lost Mind;" several marvelously accurate reproductions of Seymour Haden's etchings; "The Reconnaissance," by de Neuville; Mary Hallock Foote's "Girl of the Mexican Camp;" "Young Russian Girl in Ancient Dress," from the December SCRIBNER; "A Swedish Queen-Mother," from the January number; "The Madonna of the Lily" by da Vinci, from the CHRISTMAS ST. NICHOLAS, etc., etc. In addition to the artists of the above, Abbey, John La Farge, William Blake, Vanderhoof, Dabour, George Inness, Jr., Francis Lathrop, Moran, Homer Martin, and others are represented. Cole is the engraver of sixteen of the Pictures, while Henry Marsh, Kruell, Closson, Miss Powell, Whitney, Bogert, Muller, and King are among the other engravers whose work is here seen at its very best.

The collection is issued in an elegant case, and sold at the low price of $5.00, or only ten cents for each picture. No set can be broken, and the proofs will be sold only in full sets, which the publishers will send prepaid to any address on receipt of the price, or they may be had of book-sellers generally. One-third of the entire edition has already been ordered from England, and of those offered for sale in America, many were engaged several months before publication.

The following are extracts from some letters and press notices

REGARDING LAST YEAR'S "PORTFOLIO."

PHILIP GILBERT HAMERTON.

"I have looked through these proofs over and over again, with the keenest pleasure, in following the surprisingly varied skill of the artists. They quite surpass all Europeans in variety of interpretative power."

SPRINGFIELD REPUBLICAN.

"It is notably the handsomest of all the holiday gift books. No one with a taste for art, or merely natural liking for the pictorial, could fail to be delighted with this gift."

THE STANDARD, LONDON.

"It is impossible for an Englishman to look through this collection of engravings without a deep feeling of humiliation. That we may possess artists capable of drawing, and engravers capable of cutting such exquisite work as that exhibited by these one hundred and two engravings, all taken from the pages of a monthly magazine and a serial for the young, is possible, nay, probable; but that they do not produce such work as this is equally the fact."
